

SEARCHING FOR ITEMS AT OAKTON

The library catalog is the place to find items held at Oakton Community College. You can search for books, videos, kits, journals, articles, and more, by title, author, subject, keyword, or ISBN/ISSN.
You must have a current library card to borrow items.

1. Find the Catalog

The Oakton Library Catalog offers two ways to look for books: Simple Search and Advanced Search. Both can be accessed from the library's homepage at www.oakton.edu/library/

Click on "Search Our Catalog" on the library's main page.

If you are looking for something that an instructor put on reserve for your class, click Course Reserves.

Click on "Sign In" in the upper right-hand corner of the screen.

You must be logged in before you can access requesting options.

You can switch to Advanced Search from the Simple Search drop-down by clicking the link.

2. Search

Simple Search

Type your search here. If searching by keyword, use only a few words or phrases.

SEARCH

Combine search terms using:

- AND: looks for both terms together
- OR: looks for either term by itself
- NOT: excludes a term

You can refine your search by adding additional terms (e.g. Any field, Title, Author/Creator, Subject, ISBN, or ISSN) from the drop-down menu.

Type your search in the boxes here. Use only a few words or phrases in each box.

You can further refine your search by limiting to:

- Material Type: a particular material type (e.g. All items, Journals, Books, Articles, Images, Sound recordings, Video/Film, or Dissertations)
- Language: materials in a particular language
- Start Date and End Date: a certain publication date or range of dates
